Workplace Giving

Help us support survivors of family and sexual violence in Papua New Guinea.

Family and Sexual Violence in Papua New Guinea

While violence affects us all, violence against women and girls is one of the most pervasive human rights violations in the world.¹ Globally, one in three women will experience violence in their lifetime. In Papua New Guinea (PNG), that rate increases to two in three.²

Femili PNG

Femili PNG is a Papua New Guinean NGO that supports survivors of family and sexual violence (FSV) in PNG. Since opening their first case management centre in 2014, over 6,100 survivors have been linked with medical support, safe accommodation, justice interventions and more. They also train community leaders to support survivors locally, and educate families on how to address violence in their day-to-day lives.

FemiliPNG Australia

FemiliPNG Australia (FPNGA) is an Australian support organisation for Femili PNG. We provide technical expertise, governance, and financial support to assist Femili PNG to increase their organisational capability and impact. All profits and income go directly towards supporting Femili PNG's life-changing services.

By signing up to the FPNGA workplace giving program at your organisation, you can help us support survivors of family and sexual violence in PNG.

What is Workplace Giving?

Workplace giving allows employees make small, automatic donations from their pre-tax pay through their employer's payroll system.

Why Workplace Giving?

1. The value of your donation is increased

Since your donation is made from your pre-tax pay, your tax benefits are immediate. This means that the value of each donation is increased.

A donation of $20 only costs you between $11.00 and $16.20 (depending on your tax bracket), but FPNGA receives the full $20.

2. It supports survivors of violence in PNG

As a free case management service, Femili PNG relies on donations to ensure long-term and sustainable programs are available to survivors of FSV in PNG. Workplace giving means FPNGA receives a steady income stream to support Femili PNG's vital services.

3. It's an easy way to make a big impact

When you sign up for workplace giving, your donations are managed completely through your payroll. This makes donating to FPNGA, and opting-in and -out whenever you like, easy.
